Scripture: Matthew 9:9-13

Thought: When God calls there should be a response on our side. Matthew's response to Jesus at his booth was to follow and bring several of his friends to meet Jesus.

Questions:

1. This might be a tough question, but how does God call?
2. How have you answered his call in your life?
3. What stood out to you from today's sermon?

The pantry is in need of plastic bags. The pantry also needs Gallon Size Ziploc Freezer Bags. If you are able to provide some, please bring them and put them in the kitchen.

Which Way Do We Go

To live according to the "gospel of me" spells disaster. We know that we are not GOD, but sometimes to keep up our image, we act like it.

When we do everything our way, we have no opportunity to learn from others. We can be doomed to commit the same mistakes over and over again because we won't listen to or learn from others. Our horizons are too narrow.

"Our way" is undisciplined. It is a long line of urges, wants, and desires. Selfishness is not found around freedom. Undisciplined people follow the path of least resistance. The person who does only what he wants never completes difficult jobs. He is always behind and in debt.

Paul pleads for the maturity which comes by understanding that we have no reason to boast, for "grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift" (Eph. 4:7). How can I boast of my accomplishments when I am "not my own" (1 Cor. 6:19)? We were bought with Christ's blood. How can we be selfish when everything we have of value is a gift?

There is only room for one throne in our hearts. It will be occupied by GOD or self. When we enthrone ourselves, we dethrone GOD. "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve GOD and money" (Matt. 6:24). GOD Bless You, In His Name, Pat Meek

Co-ed Volleyball

The North Garland co-ed volleyball team will have a game this Thursday, February 16th at 6:30.

Q & A Series

Everyone has questions about Faith, God, the Bible or Spirituality. Sometimes the answers are easy to find, sometimes they aren't, and sometimes we don't want anyone to know the question we have. This series is for those questions. Erik has a box to put these questions in. The box is in the education building on the little table by the kitchen. Grab a piece of paper, write your question (anonymously if desired), and place it in his "Got Questions?" box. In a few months, we will take several weeks and go about studying and trying to find answers using the scriptures for these questions.

Stamp Out Starvation

We hope you'll come join us in packaging food for those in need Friday, March 10th. This is a great time to serve God and others, and fellowship in the process. Everyone is welcome to come. We will start packaging at 6:30 in the education building and will conclude at 8. We need some to help set up, please arrive at 5:30 for that. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer on the welcome center.
