Life Group Questions:

Thought: Everyone has people they don't get along with. Maybe because of past hurts, maybe personalities, or maybe just never got to know them. However, when it comes to loving people God's way...none of that matters. We are commanded simply, "Love one another."

Questions:

1. What characteristics make it hard for you to love someone? Easy?
2. What traits do you have that might make you difficult for some to love?
3. How can we go about showing God's love to people we don't know?

Praise the Lord!

Psalm 115

I am dedicating this article in memory of my dad (Leon Jantz) as the Lord lifted him up to his eternal glory on January 28, 2016. He asked me to read this psalm to him while he was suffering from severe pain. It brought him comfort and peace, and I pray it will do the same for you. Praise the Lord!

The psalmist well understood the value of an intimate relationship with the Lord. He calls on all people to "give glory to the Lord for his steadfast love and faithfulness." That was the life of my dad. He witnessed for Jesus and the kingdom of God until the very end - singing songs of praise, asking people if they believed in God and read the Bible. The psalmist called on Israel and to us, to "trust in the Lord! He is our help and shield." It is amazing what happens when we put our trust in the Lord. He gives us strength and comfort to help us endure in our time of suffering. He gives us strength and courage to keep on going when times are tough. It is the Lord who lifts us from the "pit" of life and makes us whole. You see, "The Lord has been mindful of us; he will bless us; he will bless the house of Israel; he will bless those who fear the Lord, both small and great." I am so thankful for the opportunity to witness how the Lord blessed my dad these past five years. Dad indeed feared the Lord, and he trusted in him with all his heart, mind, and soul. As the psalmist declares, "May you be blessed by the Lord, who made heaven and earth!"

What a beautiful thing to know that the Creator walks with us and blesses us in everything we do. My dad was truly blessed by the Lord, and he took time to pass on that blessing to others through the life he lived. So let us give our lives, just as dad did, to "blessing the Lord from this time forth and for evermore. Praise the Lord!" Gordon
