Life Group Questions:

Thought: Community is an interesting idea. It is mixture of things like people, location, culture, and values. Every community is different. A community in California is different from one in Oklahoma which are both different from Florida, not to mention a community somewhere in Africa. Yet, each one of these places have Christians to call them home, who must figure out what it looks like to let God's light shine through them in those communities.

Questions:

1. What makes Enid, OK...Enid, OK?
2. How is "loving our community" different from the first sermon which was "loving people"?
3. How can we let God's light shine in Enid?

J.O.Y

There is a song I learned as a child, and perhaps you did as well, that gives an acronym for the word "joy"... J, is for "J"esus first; O, is for "O"thers in between; and Y, is for "Y"ourself last. I suppose the idea is that if you follow God and put others ahead of yourself you will have joy in your life. Two biblical scriptures come to mind when I think about this acronym, "the last shall be first" from Matthew 20:27 and the greatest commands from Mark 12.

Our sermon series the last three weeks, "Loving God's Way," has had a similar message. This series has focused on giving of ourselves to others, specifically to people, creation and our community. Giving of ourselves requires action, movement and work, and during the last three weeks we have had opportunities as a congregation to package food for hungry (people), repair a basketball goal (community) and clean up city parks (creation). There are also many people at North Garland who work in other ways through teaching, children's church, cooking, pantry and other ways, too many to name here.

They say that hard work builds the body up and makes it strong. Well, I say that it is good to see so many people in the body here at North Garland working hard to the glory of God. May this hard work continue so that our body grows strong in the Lord. I also hope that as we work, we can work with J.O.Y! Putting the needs of the many first and in so doing be filled with real joy...joy in our deacons, joy in our teachers, joy in our parents, in our singing, fellowship and yes...even joy in trials that we all have from time to time.

May the God of all grace and mercy fill you and yours with joy this week.

Peace, Erik.

Thank You

Thank you for all the phone calls, texts, cards and meals after my surgery. We greatly appreciated the love shown to our family. Thank you to everyone that sat with my family at the hospital during my surgery. They appreciated it. We are truly blessed to be a part of such a loving church family. Thanks again. Love, Cathy, Chris, Hannah & Daylan Berry
