Life Group Questions:

Thought:

Today's sermon looked at three responsibilities we have in regards to sexual purity: responsibility as individuals to follow, responsibility as a church to provide accountability, and responsibility to show Jesus to unbelievers. The sermon concluded with a foundation for why God calls us to live pure lives...because it leads to freedom instead of bondage.

Questions:

1. Have you ever seen churches deal with sexual sin in a beneficial way? How so?
2. What damage is done when Christians treat unbelievers in ungodly ways?
3. How does living a godly life lead from bondage to freedom? Do you have personal examples?

Perception

We need to guard ourselves against having pre-conceived ideas of those we meet. Are we to judge someone because of the fine clothes they are wearing? Are we to judge someone because they have earrings or tattoos? Who did Jesus minister to while he was on earth? Didn't Jesus minister to the poor, the outcast, the sick, the lame, the blind, and those with other infirmities?

No two individuals are alike! Just like fingerprints and snow flakes, every individual is unique! We must never expect someone to have the same characteristics or abilities as someone else. We are all different with different abilities and talents. Some have many abilities and others few. Our talents, being different, we should all love one another just as God loves us!

In Luke (18:10) (For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost)! If we are walking in the light as He is in the light, shouldn't we do the same? Opportunities are there for us to tell others of Jesus are we using them?

In His name

Sexual Purity Class & Sermon

We will have our last day of the mini series "Sexual Purity" in both class & sermon time. During class, all classes 6th grade-adult will be combined in the auditorium with Erik facilitating. Children's church will be available as usual for those 3 years-1st grade during worship. In addition, due to the mature nature of the topic, there will be children's church available for those up through 5th grade as needed.

Thank You

The North Garland saints have been angels from heaven for Carol and I during this difficult time for our family. Your prayers, calls, messages, cards and visits have all been felt and uplifting. The food and dining supplies have served our every need. The funeral meal was a wonderful blessing for our families and relatives. Your attendance at dad's visitation and funeral was inspiring and has given us God's comfort as we move forward in our lives. May God continue to bless you richly. In Christian Love, Gordon and Carol Jantz.
