Means to an End!

The Lord Jesus said, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel" (Matthew 28:18). There are so many ways and means to carry out the great commission, one could ride a car, bus, boat, plane and others. Whatever mode of transportation one may use, all of these are just means to an end which is preaching the good news.

In the first century, perhaps the early christians just mostly walked and yet they literally turned the world upside down by preaching the gospel of the Lord. In some instances, they reached other islands and known worlds by riding a boat. The Apostle Paul was an example of using the boat to go to places where the gospel had never heard before. It's awesome to realize how the early christians have accomplished so much without the modern and advance means of transportations. According to Tertullian, that between the 1st, 2nd and 3rd century, one tenth of the population of the Roman empire has been impacted by the gospel. It was estimated that the entire Roman empire had a hundred million subjects.

Today, we have the challenge of utilizing the more advance means of transportations to bring the gospel all over the world. I am humbled to think about the Hamiltons' (one of the early missionary family to come to the Philippines) who spent more than a month by ship during a cold winter. They spent both Christmas and New Year's Eve on the high seas. Remembering their journey, there's no way I could fuss about the 20 hours flight over the Pacific. I praise God that we have now supersonic jets and fast craft boat. All of these means could make preaching much easier and efficient.

I thank God that our family at North Garland have been so generous to provide us a wonderful means to travel all over the country of the Philippines preaching the good news. The powerful Hino bus (gospel bus). It's kind of rough but we love it. The folks who came here last June, Michael, Jovita, Terry, and Sally, you all experienced riding the Hino. We are so thankful for your sacrifices to travel to come help with the work in Bato and encourage the young church there and all of our MOSES workers. Our work in Leyte, really got its start in 2005 when the first team from North Garland came to help plant the church in Bay Bay. Lives have been forever changed because of your love and sacrifice for the Philippine, and it will continue to bless others. Last weekend about sixty christians were riding in Hino, sardines style. There were 4 baptisms as a result of them going house to house in Negros.. Once again, we truly appreciate the generous hearts of those who help us with the means to purchase the Hino last May 2015, so we will have a great tool to be able to spread the good news all over the country of the Philippines for many years and miles to come.

Because of Him who loved us so much, Richard Emperado
