Life Group Questions

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 12:12-31

Thought: Today's sermon was how the church is like a body. A body is one but made of many parts, and each part belongs to the others.

1. What stood out to you from the sermon?
2. As part of the body, what do you have to offer?
3. What strengths are there to being part of a diverse group of people?

Missions
"Where He Leads"

Our Life's journey can lead each one of us in many different directions. As we finish our school years and prepare to take our place in the work force and society, we are presented with a variety of options on which course we take. Yes, it is rather unnerving to realize that a 19 year old gets to determine what we are going to do in life. Which path do we take – which one do we choose? There are times when the circumstances dictate which path we choose. As for me, the Vietnam War put me on the most unlikely path for a young farm boy. I spent the next 29 years following the lead of Uncle Sam. One thing I have learned over the years, is that the specific path we choose to take in life does not really matter as long as we surrender ourselves to go where God leads us.

As the chorus of an inspiring song goes, "Where He leads me I will follow – I'll go with Him, with Him all the way." You see, when we are willing to go where he leads us, God will shower us with his great blessings, and we will find success in our endeavors. I love Jesus' discourse on the good shepherd in John 10. The gatekeeper opens the door to the good shepherd [which is Jesus] and "the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out" (vs. 2-3). During this year focused on prayer, I call upon each one of us to pray for the heart and spirit to go where he leads. We need to follow his lead in our families, in our jobs, in the direction we set for our church family, and the way we engage in the work of ministry. As we surrender our lives to go where he leads, and take time to wait for God's guidance, we will find our journey through life blessed beyond measure. Being willing to go where he leads takes our total commitment – but the eternal reward will truly be awesome!
