Scripture: Life of Moses Genesis

Thought: Be assured, God is not caught off guard by the cultural upheavals that characterize this period of transition. It is not accidental that you live at a time when the decisions you make, especially in regard to culture, can have a profound affect.

Questions:

1. What cultural influences in your early years have shaped you most significantly?
2. Do you look for ways to connect with the culture or seek ways to escape from it? How so?
3. What stood out to you from today's sermon?

Family Mission Trip - June 1-4

We hope you're making plans to participate in this great new mission trip. Please let Adam Smith or Michael Manley know as soon as possible if you are going. There is a signup sheet in the foyer for this trip.

Co-ed Softball

Its time for co-ed softball! There is a sign up sheet on the welcome center in the foyer for anyone 12 years old and older that would like to play co-ed softball. Games will start the end of May.

Christian Requirements

o' si yu,

Several years ago a young college student asked, "How much beer can I drink and still be a Christian?" Others might ask:

How long should I read my Bible each day?

How long should I pray each day?

How much money do I have to give to the church?

Do I have to _____? ____?

And the list goes on and on. We all seem to want to know what the "minimum daily requirement" is for being a Christian. What do we HAVE to do to get by?

Christ has freed us from bondage to minimum daily requirements! Our relationship with the Lord Jesus is not contingent on works; it is a gift of grace.

"So," you ask, "does that mean we don't have to do anything as a Christian? Aren't there any requirements?" The Bible challenges us to be like Christ, and if we are to do that, we need to open our Bibles and learn how Jesus lived. When we do, we see that Jesus, 1) studied God's word, 2) prayed regularly, and 3) served those around him, not because he was told to do them; He did them because He wanted to do them.

What is your minimum daily requirement when it comes to your spiritual health? Let it be determined by love and let our God guide us as we dedicate ourselves to growing in the Lord.

Ephesians 2:8,9

For by grace you have been saved through faith and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; and not as a result of works, that no one should boast.

wado, John Wright

Question Box

As most of you know, there has been a question box in the lobby for the congregation to place questions which will be answered in a special series. Many good questions were received with a wide variety of topics. Thank you to everyone who put a question in the box. The elders and ministers are now going to enter a time of discernment to sort through the questions, study the scriptures, and choose the proper time and setting to best cover these questions.

Placed Membership

We want to welcome Bill & Teresa Baker to our church family. They placed membership with us last week. Be sure to give them a warm welcome hug.
