Sermon Scriptures: Romans 5:12-21

Sermon thought: We continued our topic today on death and dying. Today's specifically we looked at Cremation and little children's death.

Sermon questions:

- One. What new information and ideas did you hear today?
2. After the last 2 weeks discussions, in what ways are you more comfortable or confident in the topic of death?
3. What else did that do to you from the last couple weeks?

Prayer List

O'se yo (Greetings) Who Is God?

Thousands of years ago, Pharaoh, the ruler of Egypt, posed a question that people are still asking today: " Who is the Lord that I should listen to him?" It is difficult for our limited minds to grasp the limitless, eternal God. It has been said, "If God were small enough for our minds, he wouldn't be big enough for our needs." For this reason, we shouldn't be exasperated if we can't fully understand who God is or why he does certain things. One day, just as the apostle Paul assured the Corinthian church, everything about God and his character will be made perfectly clear to us. But until then, we will find everything we need to know about him in his word, the Bible.
