Sermon Scripture: James 5:1-6

Sermon Thought: James gives quite the attack on the rich in this passage. He does not attack the rich for being rich, as much as he reveals what sin does to them and to others through their riches. Hoarding, defrauding, and indulging are the very antithesis of the gospel. We should work towards being willing to empty ourselves just as Jesus emptied himself of all power, status, and wealth.

Sermon Questions:

1. Does God care about our money? Why or why not?
2. You have a strong work ethic, you are successful, you live a comfortable life able to buy the things you need and want...what dangers should you be on guard against?
3. How can we lay up treasures in heaven?

Inspired

"Touched by the Spirit"

I was blessed growing up to have a father that inspired me. He showed me the value of sacrifice and commitment for succeeding in life. I learned from him as he got up early to do the chores, went to work all day, came home and did the chores again, and then did farm work at night. He gave his life to caring for his family, and taking care of the tasks he was given to do. The testimony of his life inspired within me a yearning to follow the same path of daily sacrifice and commitment so I could receive the Lord's blessing for all my labor and toil. I was always inspired to do the very best I could in everything I did.

We are likewise blessed, as Christians, to have a Father that inspires us. He gave us his very best as he created everything that exists. Biblical history reveals that when his people followed his path and commands, they succeeded in life. There is no greater source of inspiration than his loving act to give us his only Son so we could live eternally with him. Jesus also gave us a clear picture of the Father as he lived his life on earth, and we are now inspired to follow in his steps. When we engage the spiritual life in Christ, we are given the precious gift of the Holy Spirit (Acts 2:38). Our lives are made whole and complete when we are touched by the Spirit. As John writes, "When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own authority, but whatever he hears he will speak and he will declare to you the things that are to come" (Jn. 16:13). Being touched by the Spirit inspires within us, as God's children, a greater sense of service and commitment to do the Lord's work in his kingdom. It is what makes us who we are as God's people to declare the good news of the gospel of Christ. When we do, others are also blessed to be touched by the Spirit! Gordon
