Sermon Scripture: James 5:7-11

Sermon Thought: James spent a few chapters giving some strong criticism to his readers: quit showing favoritism, keep your tongues in check, don't boast about your plans and don't hoard up wealth in this life. As he approaches the close of his letter, he takes a softer tone. In this section, he calls for patience much like a farmer waits for the rains to turn his field of nothing into a fruitful harvest.

Sermon Questions:

1. What does waiting on the Lord look like?
2. The farmer had to wait patiently for his crop, what is something that you had to wait for in your life? Were you able to wait patiently?
3. How can we cultivate patience in our lives?

Dear Church Family,

Thank you for making Senior Sunday special for me. I appreciate all the gifts and words of encouragement.

Positive Discipline

Many families do not realize that discipline makes life more enjoyable. Children, for example, hate music practice. But disciplining themselves will pay off later with beautiful music. Discipline and precision do not hinder good things; they bless them. Who wants a doctor or a mechanic who is not disciplined? "Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but he who hates reproof is stupid" (Prov. 12:1)

Self discipline is our defense against Satan. "A man without self control is like a city broken into and left without walls (defense)" (Prov. 25:28) In our society and culture, it is difficult to discipline ourselves from overeating and overspending. We often wish that self-discipline would come more easily. Maybe that is why it is so highly prized by God.

The book of Proverbs frequently mentions the need for parents to discipline their children. "Discipline your son while there is hope; do not set your heart on destruction" (Prov. 19:18). By nature, children do what they want, not what they should. So, parents are told to discipline them until they can discipline themselves. The phrase "spare the rod and spoil the child" is worth remembering, but it's not an exact quote from the Bible. The text is actually much stronger: "He who spares the rod hates his child (Prov. 13:24). To neglect discipline is to hate the child because he will grow up without one of the qualities that make life more enjoyable. Also, undisciplined children make life miserable for others. Discipline may seem "painful rather than pleasant," but disciplined people later yield the "peaceful fruit of righteousness" (Heb. 12:11)

The foundation for all discipline is love. Any discipline, no matter how mild, is out of order if it is not obvious to the child that both parents love them deeply. In his name

May God bless you

VBS Meeting

Today, immediately after worship there will be a brief initial VBS meeting in the fellowship hall. At this meeting we will be talking about dates, theme, and getting a few of the needs out for everyone to begin thinking about where they want to participate.

Discipleship

Jesus calls us to be his disciples and learn from him. It is important we understand what it means to be a disciple of Jesus. That will be the focus of our Wednesday night study this summer as we engage in a series of Bible studies and discussions on the topic of Discipleship. Our prayer is that these classes will nourish your spirit and encourage you on your spiritual journey. How precious it is to be called by the Son of God to be on his winning team. Make plans to join us for a powerful spiritual study that will change your life.

Summer Ladies Class

Ladies Tuesday morning Bible class will meet the 2nd Tuesday of June (12th), July (10th), and August (14th). We will meet in the main building at 10:00 am for prayer and then go visiting. Ladies interested in going to lunch together will meet back at the building at 12:00 and decide where to go for lunch. If you have any questions, contact Carol Jantz at 580-977-4409.
