Sermon Scripture: James 5:12

Sermon Thought: Using oaths or promises between brothers and sisters in Christ may be evidence of a deeper issue. If believers need oaths to guarantee their word, then perhaps enough people are not speaking truthfully most of the time. Those in the family of God should have such integrity that their words can be believed without an oath.

Sermon Questions:

1. In what arenas of life do people make oaths today and how do we go about making those oaths?
2. How would you summarize Jesus' teaching on oaths from Matthew 5:33-37 and 15:1-9?
3. Why is it so hard to, "say what we mean and mean what we say"?

Stuck in a Rut or Run on a Track

The scriptures often compare living a godly life to participating in a race: 1 Corinthians 9:24, "Everyone who competes in the games goes into strict training," Hebrews 12:1, "let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us," Galatians 5:7, "You were running a good race. Who cut in on you...?" 2 Timothy 4:7, "I have finished the race."

Those participating in a race develop strategies to compete based on factors like length of race, personal strengths and other competitors. However, things don't always go as anticipated. This same thing happens in life. People don't always end up where they want to be. Perhaps you have heard a person say, "I feel like I am stuck in a rut."

Let's take a few moments to compare ruts with railroad tracks. Both lead to a destination, both took shape over an extended period, and both are difficult to leave. The problem though, is that ruts generally don't take a person to the destination they hoped for. Ruts get shaped by other forces like rain and repetitive actions. They are shaped often by accident rather than intention.

Railroad tracks however, are laid with intention. They are built up over time and designed to take people or goods to an intended destination. If you are a believer, I hope that you will put time and effort into building up a track for your life rather than letting yourself fall into a rut. The words of 2 Peter 1:5-11 give an idea of what must be added to our lives for this intentional building up to occur, "For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith, goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control; and to self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love. For if you possess these qualities...they will keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. But whoever does not have them is nearsighted and blind.... For if you do these things, you will never stumble, and you will receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."
