Sermon Scripture: Revelation 7

Sermon Thought: Today's sermon looked at the big deal that singing is for believers. It involves our hearts in worship, our bodies with our voices, and our minds with thoughts of faith.

Sermon Questions:

1. Radio, worship, movies, and concerts all use music. Why do you think singing is such a powerful act?
2. Some hinderances to singing were mentioned in the sermon. How can we go about removing those hinderances?
3. What spiritual songs hold significant meaning to you and why?

New Prayer Concerns:

- Youth and Family Minister search
- Kay Scott- cervical cancer - pending surgery
- Carol Jantz-at home recovering from a mild heart attack. No visitors please.
- Andy McPherson-Gordon & Carol's son-in-law; having tests for possible heart issues
- Faye Garrison & family of Earl Garrison-Sue Diel's brother-in-law, Earl, passed away 6/9

Crucified on the Cross "The Burden of Sin"

What are those things in life that pull you down? That just seem like a heavy weight hung around your neck? No matter who we are or what we have become, we all have burdens we carry. No matter what they are, we have to find a way to work through them and keep them from destroying our lives. So where do we begin? It seems to me that the first step is to spend time reflecting on what our burdens are – and understanding how they weigh us down. Then we need to look for ways to deal with our burdens and lessen the impact they have on our lives – putting them behind and pressing on with the things we want to do.

I submit that the greatest obstacles we face in life is the burden of sin. Solomon teaches us "there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins" (Ecc. 7:20). The apostle Paul affirms this when he writes "all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God" (Rom. 3:23). When we have sin in our lives, it weighs us down – we feel like we can't go on – it drains our emotions and energy. The burden of sin is sure to destroy the goodness of life and keep us from being righteous before God. We need to stop and assess what sins we have in our lives and how they are keeping us from being joyful and happy. Praise God that his love provides us a way out of the burden of sin. As Peter writes, "He [Jesus] himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness" (1 Pet. 2:24). So Jesus calls us to lay the burden of sin at his feet and he will set us free (Matt. 11:28-29). "For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2). How wonderful to have the heavy weight of sin lifted from our weary souls. We are now free to become the righteousness of God and enjoy eternal life with him.

Church-Wide Cookout/Game Night

Come out this Friday the 21st for a night of good food and games! We will start at 6:00 p.m. in the fellowship building. Do you need your flowerbeds weeded? Your closets cleaned out for the garage sale next month? Bring your list of chores to do. The youth will be up for auction! Call the office or text Mandy (541-9699) next week if you want to help with food.

Thank You

Dear North Garland Family,
I want to express my gratitude for all of the graduation gifts and for everything else you have done for me. Each card and present put a smile on my face, and when thinking about the love that was put into them, I smiled even bigger. This church has been such an important part of my childhood and I can't wait to start my new life journey knowing I have such amazing people supporting me every step of the way.

With love, Rebecca Geitzenauer
