Sermon Scripture: 1 Corinthians 11:17-34

Sermon Thought: Today's sermon talked about one of the sacraments of Christianity, communion. Sometimes communion is also called eucharist, which means thanksgiving. Because of Jesus' death, which is what is remembered at communion, we have a great reason to give thanks to God!

Sermon Questions:

1. Thinking back through the years, you have probably heard many communion talks, which one stands out to you the most and why?
2. Why might there be importance or significance in taking the eucharist with other brothers and sisters at church?
3. Is it important to take communion weekly? Why or why not?
4. When should Christians NOT partake in communion?

Playground Fund

With summer fasting approaching and family routines changing, I wanted to give everyone a brief update on the church camp we support. If you are new to our church family, LCCC stands for Lariat Creek Christian Camp. It is supported by Churches of Christ in northwest and western Oklahoma. It is located just north of Geary, OK, on a small creek that runs through the property.

It was established at this site in 1973 and that is when many of the buildings were built. The camp is overseen by a board of men from different churches that support the camp. I have been on that board since the 1990s.

To improve the camp, the board started a very ambitious building campaign in 2013 to replace and improve the cabins, mess hall and kitchen, bath house, cook quarters and permanent home for the caretakers of the camp. Since that time, a new cabin has been built, Rick and Cathy (our caretakers) have a new log home, the new welcome center should be completed soon (June 2019), and new bath house is being completed (late 2019 or early 2020). All this comes with a cost. With camp improvement and expenses, the board will spend $300,000 this year for those improvements.

This is a true labor of love. All of us on the board consider the camp as "kingdom" work. It touches not only the kids that go in the summertime, but the camp is used heavily by different churches for retreats, family reunions, and we also get requests for weddings. I just wanted to tell everyone THANK YOU, that has helped in the camp's success. Also, to encourage everyone to use the camp. Thanks to everyone that has or will send your children there.

Psalms 100:5. "For the Lord is good and his love endures forever, his faithfulness continues through all generations."

Fall Ladies' Day Meeting

Please attend a short meeting immediately after Sunday worship to learn how you can help with our Fall Ladies Day scheduled for October 5. It isn't too late to sign up to help. For those who have already signed up on a committee, please have at least one member of your committee at the meeting. The current committee list is available on the credenza in the lobby.

Thank You
