Sermon Scripture: Genesis 11:1-9

Sermon Thought: The key moment of dissonance in the tower of Babel story is when the people say they want to build so that, "we may make a name for ourselves; otherwise we will be scattered over the whole earth." Both of those reasons go against God, and for that God chose to intervene in another world shaping event.

Sermon Questions:

1. In your words, what was wrong with humanities motivations?
2. The sermon briefly brought out some people's origin theory for race, what are your thoughts on that?
3. This sermon brought to an end the first section of Genesis that is made up of incredible earth shaping moments. How are these first chapters different from the rest of Genesis as well as the rest of the Bible?
4. If you had to summarize in one sentence the overall message of the first 11 chapters of Genesis, what would it be?

"A Spiritual Guide"

What a blessing it is to have a guide when we wonder into wildernesses unknown. Someone who knows the landscape – who knows the dangers – who knows how to navigate the unseen pathways. By ourselves, we would be vulnerable to becoming completely lost and in danger of losing our life. As much as we come to appreciate our guide, we are left to wonder how they acquired their skill and knowledge to be able to lead others safely to their destination. These guides have been through the wilderness exploring the safe passages and learning how to get through the maze that lies before them.

As we journey through our spiritual life with its unseen dangers and challenges, we are also in need of a spiritual guide to get us to our heavenly home. Praise God that he has provided such a guide that knows the way to eternal life and understands the obstacles we will face. Jesus tells us "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me" (Jn. 14:6). Jesus is our perfect spiritual guide because he has been part of creation from its very beginning. He knows our every need – he cares that we are able to safely navigate the wilderness of our world – he has experienced the temptations of Satan and has overcome – and he has been victorious over sin and death. When we try to navigate life on our own, we find ourselves lost and filled with anxiety and heavy burdens. It is then we hear the tender voice of our spiritual guide telling us to "Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me; for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls" (Matt. 11:28-29). Praise God for his amazing love for us and providing a spiritual guide to keep us on the path of righteousness toward our glorious home with him in heaven. Amen and Amen! Gordon

Thank You

With heartfelt thanks we appreciate all you've done to make our going away party a great time. The cookie jar is so cute but not full yet. Tell me when you're coming, and I'll have it filled. Love you all so much.
