Sermon Scripture: Habakkuk 3:16-19

Sermon Thought: Habakkuk asks a lot of tough questions to God. God does give Habakkuk answers, but they are not the answers Habakkuk expects and actually finds them shocking. In the end, Habakkuk ends up at a place of trusting in God even though he does not understand what God is doing.

Sermon questions:

1. What big questions have you had of God before?
2. What do you feel after hearing some of Habakkuk's questions?
3. How close are you to where Habakkuk ended up in trusting God although he didn't understand God?

New Prayer Concerns:

Jim Long – recovering from hip surgery
JR Baxter – recovering from Carotid Artery surgery this week
Rustin Osburn – will be having a procedure on Wednesday to see how much cancer is left in his colon

Keep Silence

A while back I tried on a pair of my dad's noise cancelling headphones. It was quite eerie to flip the switch and have everything go quiet. It made me realize just how much noise there was that just didn't register to me. There are other similar times that come to mind as well like when the power goes out or there is a fresh layer of snow on the ground in the morning. Everything seems to slow down in those moments. So quiet. So...peaceful.

It is hard to pay attention when we are constantly surrounded by noise. That is why we go to other rooms to talk on the phone and movie theaters tell the audience to silence their cell phones. Ever notice that no matter how many times that is said someone still has a phone go off? It immediately distracts from the movie.

This week I came across Habakkuk 2:20. It says, "The Lord is in his holy temple, let all the earth keep quiet before him." As I thought about that, it gives the impression almost as though the earth and everything in it is softly saying, "Shh, let's all pay attention to the Lord God Almighty." I encourage you, dwell upon those words this week.

Donations Needed to Replace the Auditorium Carpet

Building Updates: As you are aware, we are in the midst of both continued flood repair AND a 3-stage auditorium update which began a year ago. Wayne Williams is working hard and doing a fantastic job overseeing all of these projects! If you get a chance, tell him thank you. Throughout the process, we have used funds wisely by getting good quotes and doing some work ourselves like pulling carpet. By doing this, we are hoping to be able to finish those projects as well as a much-needed update to the bathrooms. We are close to accomplishing this, but it is a balancing act. If you would like to contribute financially towards these projects, we are still taking donations for them.

Young Professionals

In the months of June and July there will be a class during the regular Sunday school hour for the those in the young professional group at church. Robb Mills will be teaching the class. More info to come later. If you are in that age group hope to see you there!

Senior Sunday

Please take time today and write a few encouraging words or your favorite scripture in the bibles out in the foyer for the graduating seniors. We have four seniors this year: Kaylynn Brownell, Cooper Thornton, Levi LeCrone, and Tyler Holland. Join us next week for Senior Sunday as we celebrate the accomplishments of these special four young adults.
