Sermon Scripture: Matthew 13

Sermon Thought:

In this chapter, Matthew presents several parables about the kingdom of heaven. Jesus used many stories, or parables, when speaking to the crowds. These stories compare something familiar to something unfamiliar, helping us understand spiritual truth by using everyday objects and relationship as illustrations. Jesus' parables draw willing listeners into discovering truth, while at the same time concealing truth from those too lazy or too stubborn to see it.

Sermon Questions:

1. Why is teaching in parables such an impactful way of teaching?
2. Which of the parables of heaven speaks to you the most?
3. If you were tell your own parable about the kingdom of heaven what would it be?

New Prayer Concerns:

Carol Jantz – has a tear in her left shoulder and will have to have surgery Feb. 4th (Gordon and Carol will be quarantining until then as a preventative measure)
