Sermon Scripture: Luke 9:23, 1 Thess. 4:12

Sermon Thought:

Most of what we remember in life are the major moments. Seldom do we remember the daily, monotonous moments. However, even those routine moments shape our lives. People often talk about making a 180 degree turn in their lives when they have made bad choices. It can be hard to make such a big change, but maybe it is helpful to think about making one small change at a time. 180 small changes later leads to a drastic transformation.

Sermon Questions:

1. Why do major changes seem so daunting?
2. What is a MAJOR change you made in life? Name several small changes that it took to get you there.
3. What is a small change you could make in your faith to walk closer to God?

New Prayer Concerns:

Teachers/Students/Admin. – be praying for everyone involved in teaching our kids as the end of the year approaches

Prayer of thanksgiving! Cissy Duarte has a new grandson, Briggs Michael Yoder.

Why are you still here?

A few months ago, Susan and I were asked by a member of this church, who knew what we have witnessed or been through over the years, "From all you have been through, what is it that keeps you here at this church?"

During the past 36 years we have endured so many things I can't name them all. We are not alone. Several people have been here as long as us and have endured the same things as we have. So how have we managed to make it this long and still worship here?

Colossians 3 tells us what we must be like to be able to maintain a long lasting relationship with God's family.

Colossians 3:12 – 16, "Since God chose you to be Holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tender hearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience. Make allowance for each other's faults and forgive anyone who offends you. Remember, the Lord forgave you so you should forgive others. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony. And let the peace that comes from Christ rule in your hearts. For as members of one body you are called to live in peace. And always be thankful. Let the message about Christ, in all its richness, fill your lives."

God's Word and our faith have given us the patience and endurance to continue worshipping without giving up on our church home or our brothers and sisters here. Petty arguments, disagreements and gossip are things that Satan uses to destroy God's church. We don't allow problems to pull us down too much. We know from the teachings of Jesus and our faith that what lies ahead is eternal life with our Savior Christ Jesus.

Sexual Morality Series

On May 15, 22, and 29 we will be going through a series titled, "Sexual Morality." The first week covers, "What the Bible says about sexual purity." The second week, "What the Bible says about sexual impurity." Then finally, "How Christians ought to respond." Each week the series builds on itself so try to be here for all 3 sessions. The series will function both during Sunday school class and the sermon time. The class times will cover in greater detail some components of the sermon and allow for interaction. Due to the subject material, there will be some changes to children and youth portions of our Sunday gatherings. First, the youth group will join the adult class in the fellowship hall, but there will be a regular Sunday school option for those in Middle School if parents want for their children. Second, Children's Church will be expanded to 3 years old through 5th grade. Please talk with Erik about any further questions.

North Garland T-Shirts

There are order forms on the welcome center for North Garland t-shirts. These t-shirts would be great to wear when participating in service projects or attending children's extra circular activities with a group from church.

Pilgrim's Praise Challenge

For this week the focus is on the Gospels and Acts (History).

Gospels: Reveal the Lord (John 14:8-10).

Acts (History): The implementation of the Church and the Great Commission from Matthew 28:18-20, "of all nations."

Jared Spencer & Sarah Emerson Wedding

Jared Spencer & Sarah Emerson got married! Congratulate Bill & Kim Spencer when you see them! They are both going straight into jobs after their honeymoon so we will not be able to have a traditional shower for them. Please send any cards to
