"Dear Self" Exercise

Over the June 16th weekend, Randy Willingham visited with us about our personal values and loyalties. During this time, he challenged anyone interested to write a letter to self on the topic, "Why I exist." We encourage as many as possible to do this before the next consultation weekend, August 18-20. If you need guidance for this letter, write about these 3 areas: what gives your life purpose, direction or meaning? Include scripture that speaks to that and identify a few standards or "rules for life" that help you walk that path. Feel free to talk with Erik if you want more information.

New Prayer Requests:

Ken & Carol Newman – friends of the Kents; Ken will be going through chemo for throat cancer.

Larry Cochran – his twin brother passed away.

Maria Gonzalez – friend of Glenn Walker; had a heart attack while visiting family in Mexico. She is intubated & stable.

Cathy Grant – friend of Jovita Lang & member of Garriott Road CoC. She has tumors causing health problems.

Beverly Carroll – waiting for colonoscopy results.

Count Your Many Blessings

There is an old song we sing entitled "When Upon Life's Billows". The chorus says "Count your blessings, name them one by one; Count your blessings, see what God hath done; Count your blessings, name them one by one; Count your many blessings see what God hath done."

I think we should all ask ourselves what blessings we should thank God for. Some of the blessings many of us could include:

- Jesus died for every one of us. We can have salvation through him if we choose to.
- Do you have food in the refrigerator, clothes on your back, a roof overhead, and a place to sleep?
- Do you have money in the bank, in your wallet, and spare change in a dish?
- Did you wake up this morning with more health than illness? If so, you are more blessed than the many who will not even survive this day.
- If you have never experienced the fear in battle, the loneliness of imprisonment, the agony of torture, or the pangs of starvation... You are ahead of millions of people in the world.
- Do you have a loving family?

We all have different things we are thankful for, and some might even be perceived to have more blessings than others, but the point is we are a very blessed people. Matthew 6:25-34 tells us not to worry. Verse 32 tells us that our heavenly Father knows what we need. I encourage you to count your many blessings and take time each day to thank our heavenly Father for all He has done for you.

May God Bless each of you.
