Sermon Scripture:

Matthew 18:15-18

Sermon Thought:

Dealing with sin can be difficult, both personal sin and other’s sin. It can be embarrassing and shameful to talk about personal sin. And really, who WANTS to confront others about their sin. And yet, dealing with sin is a must for followers of God.

Sermon Questions:

1. When have you seen sin dealt with in a positive way?
2. What are the consequences, this side judgment, of not dealing with sin?
3. What are the benefits to facing sin and dealing with it?

New Prayer Concerns:

Glenn Walker – his mom passed away
Lori Manley – has bronchial pneumonia
Jan Petrik – praise that she does not have a blood clot; she will be having more tests run
Annette Waldrop – Jan Petrik's cousin; in critical condition with double pneumonia and kidney failure

Next Week's (6/5/23) Servants:

Rest

Once there were two lumberjacks who cut wood together every day. One of them worked straight through the day without taking any breaks, while the other one took an hour off for lunch each day. At the end of the day, they found that they each cut about the same amount of wood. Finally, the lumberjack who worked all through the day became frustrated and asked the other lumberjack how he could keep up with him. He replied, "I sharpen my axe during my lunch break."

God wants us to work, but he is familiar with the concept of rest and value it can have. Take time to refocus yourself so that you will be more productive in all that you do. Leviticus 25:4 but during the seventh year the land shall have a sabbath rest, a sabbath to the Lord; you shall not sow your field nor prune your vineyard.

As Christians, we have the promise of the ultimate rest. Eternal life with God is a much better retirement plan than anything we can come up with on this earth. Jesus promises to be our rest and our sanctuary.

Matthew 11:28 Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

We can hold up a small weight easily, but the constraint strain of even a small weight will eventually become impossible to keep up. The fatigue of our daily chores, our work, relationships, and the stresses that come from everyday living can become an impossible weight for us to carry alone. Remember that God will help us in all that we do. Let him take the weight and our lives will be much better for it.

1 Peter 5:7 Give all your worries to Him because He cares for you.

5th Wednesday Outreach

Come and join us this Wednesday at the 5th Wednesday Outreach! We will have a delicious meal at 5:30 p.m. and begin working at 6:15 p.m. There are projects outside the building and projects inside the building so there is something for everyone. God will continue to bless us in our good works.

Thank You

Thank you for the Mother's Day Card and for the lotion, it smells so good. So sweet! It's nice to be remembered. What a great job!

Sending a great big thank you for the May flowers. SO thoughtful and beautiful! The cookies were great also. Thanks for thinking of me.

Thanks and Love,
Carol Baxter

This Thursday is Dennis and Renny Hartman's 60th Wedding Anniversary! Please take a moment to congratulate them this morning.
