Sermon Scripture:

Ecclesiastes 5:1-7

Sermon Thought:

When we approach God with awe and reverence, worship becomes more than a ritual—it becomes a heart-altering encounter. Ecclesiastes reminds us that our words and actions matter before a holy God, calling us to listen more and speak less. Like Isaiah, true worship opens our hearts to God's voice and launches us into purposeful living.

Sermon Questions:

1. When you think of God, how do you think of him: Friend, father, unapproachable, judge?
2. How can silence or stillness become part of your worship?
3. Why is a reverent posture before God so freeing?

Christmas in July

What could be better than having a Christmas celebration in the middle of summer!! On July 30th, we will be having our 5th Wednesday Outreach. The project involves assembling 100 laundry baskets with cleaning essentials inside for our pantry patrons. We are hoping you will join us! Items will need to be purchased for the bags, and we know we can count on you to provide the money for this outreach. There is a Christmas tree in the foyer, accompanied by a collection box. You may put your donations there to give them to one of the elders or Cory Moore. Donations are needed by July 20th. If you would like to make a monetary donation in addition to purchasing products, we are requesting containers of disinfecting wipes and Kleenex boxes. Santa might even visit!

LCCC Fundraiser

We are excited to announce a special fundraiser that Lariat Creek Christian Camp is having to support the construction of a new Mess Hall and much-needed updates to the camp. The current facility has served us well, but as the camp grows, so does the need for a larger, safer, and updated dining area. Sign up to order your new shirts at the sign-up table below the clock in the foyer. The shirts are $20 each. Money can be turned into the office, the black boxes at the back of the auditorium, or given to Cory Moore. The deadline for the order is July 31. Thank you!
