Sermon Scripture:

Ecclesiastes 9:1-10

Sermon Thought:

While all people share the same earthly destiny-death- those who belong to God have the promise of salvation and a better future through Jesus. Therefore, our ultimate calling is to live fully, enjoy God's gifts, and faithfully "fear God and obey His commands."

Sermon Questions:

1. How does hope in God change the way we view both the good and the difficult seasons of life?
2. If life "under the sun" is temporary and often feels meaningless without God, what are some practical ways we can daily keep our focus on him so that we live with purpose?
3. Why do so many choose to try to fill their lives with something other than God?

Thank You

Thank you to all of you who came to the 5th Wednesday Outreach in July. You helped complete three projects from our congregation. You assembled 100 laundry baskets with home cleaning supplies included for our pantry patrons, stapled over 300 recipe booklets with recipes for some of the food we give out, and made special back-to-school gifts for the teachers at Glenwood. Without your continued support, we would not be able to serve our community in this way. On October 29, we will be putting together our annual backpacks for DHS. Please put this on your calendar! God has continued to help us bless others. He is good—all the time.

The Church Family,
Sorry, I'm so slow about getting a thank you card to those who attended the "Quilt of Valor" presentation (July 27th). Finally, it's here, thanks to all who came out in the heat for the presentation.
Thanks again,
Love y'all,
Wynoka Sunday

RRFE Videos

We hope you will join us this evening at 5:00 in the Fellowship Hall for some spiritually uplifting video presentations from the 2025 Red River Family Encampment. We will show a special presentation they gave for Tom and Julie Washburn at the beginning of our session together.
