Sermon Scripture: Revelation 20-22

Sermon Thought: The contrast of Heaven and Hell in scripture is quite dramatic. One of fire and burning sulfur, the other is of cool waters and no tears. This challenges the myth of the devil ruling Hell like a king, but rather Hell is a tragic end for all who run from God. In contrast, Heaven is a joyful destination at the end of a narrow road where life, light, peace and God's eternal presence are found.

Sermon Questions:

1. How do the biblical images of Hell shape your understanding of why Jesus warned so urgently about the "wide road"?
2. What stands out to you most about scripture's description of heaven?
3. What is something new you discovered in this sermon?
