Sermon Scripture: 1 Corinthians 11:17-34

Sermon Thought: Communion is a Christ-given sacrament meant to help believers remember His sacrificial death, proclaim His atonement, and receive ongoing spiritual nourishment in His presence. Though Christian traditions differ widely in how and when they observe it, Scripture reveals its core meaning: participation in Christ's broken body, shed blood, and the unity of His people.

Sermon Questions:

1. What does it mean for a diverse group of believers to partake of "one bread," and how does that shape our unity?

2. Communion is sometimes somber, yet also a celebration—how can both emotions coexist meaningfully at the Lord's table?

3. How have you experienced communion as spiritual nourishment rather than just a symbolic ritual?

The Essence of Life – Surrendering to Christ

Raised to a New Life

Our journey in this world begins as a new life when we are born of our mother's womb. As we take our first breath, the future of our physical life lies before us. There is nothing we have done to get us here, but what we become as a new life lies in the things we do and the choices we make. Just as God knit us together in our mother's womb (Ps. 139:13), he is everywhere about us as we journey through life (Acts 17:28). He teaches us and guides us through his holy and divine Word and all the people he puts in our lives. He wants us to be with him and has provided a way for us to be in his holy presence.

God's love for us moved him to provide a way to be lifted up from our fallen state. He sent his Son to be born into a new life here on earth. Jesus is the one who provides the only way for us to enter into the holy presence of God. Peter says Jesus left "us an example, that you should follow in his steps" (1 Pet. 2:21). Just as Jesus gave his life by being crucified on the cross for our sins, so must we give our life to him. We do that when we are "baptized into Christ Jesus and are baptized into his death. We were buried therefore with him by baptism into death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might walk in newness of life" (Rom. 6:3-4). That means we have been raised to a new life that is holy and pure before God. This new spiritual life changes who we are and puts a heavenly perspective on the things we do and the choices we make. Our task is to work for God who gave himself for us so we can enjoy our eternal journey in his glorious presence. We are truly blessed that "The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness. 'The Lord is my portion,' says my soul, therefore I will hope in him" (Lam. 3:22-24).
